Disclaimer

This book is written to educate and guide you. It is based on common hiring practices, recruiter experience, and widely accepted career advice. Every company, country, and industry hires a little differently, and practices change over time.

Reading this book does not guarantee a job, an interview, a salary figure, or a promotion. Your results depend on your effort, your field, the job market, and many factors no book can control.

Salary figures, platform features, and tool names are examples and may change after publication. Always check the latest information on official websites before making important decisions. Nothing in this book is legal, financial, or immigration advice. For those matters, please consult a qualified professional.
